

Road

Les Granges. Your house in the hills for Mont Ventoux, Haute Provence and cycle heaven – the Baronnies!

On the road this is Tour de France country. Left, the peloton powers over the local Col de Perty in 2006. As well as the legendary Mont Ventoux you can tackle the most scenic and traffic-free roads in Provence. In the eastern Baronnies expect about 3 cars per hour. Really.

Off-road there are miles and miles of top class singletrack on the toughest and most exciting terrain. And that's straight from the front door.

Detailed routes that really work, and a locally based riding companion, Olly Penrice, mean you don't waste a second in getting to grips with the real Haute Provence...
